24 THE HUMAN ELEMENT
Wyndham Austin Opens to Applause

On Feb. 20, your new CLUB WYNDHAM® resort, Wyndham Austin, held its grand opening in the brand-new downtown location. Owners and guests mingled with key leaders while enjoying a barbecue lunch and music by a local country artist. As its first contribution to the Austin region, Wyndham announced a $10,000 donation to the Central Texas Food Bank, which will provide 40,000 meals for the community.

Green Efforts Recognized by Newsweek

Adding to an already impressive list of accolades, Wyndham was named among the top 100 U.S. companies in Newsweek’s annual Green Rankings, which assess the environmental performance of hundreds of large public companies. Wyndham’s recent sustainability achievements include a 33 percent overall carbon reduction and the addition of solar panels at several resorts.

Wyndham Earns Most Ethical Distinction

For the fourth year in a row and sixth time overall, Wyndham has been recognized as a World’s Most Ethical Company® by the Ethisphere Institute. Ethisphere, a global leader in advancing the standards for ethical business practices, honors only a small number of companies that align principle with action, work tirelessly to make trust part of their corporate DNA and, in doing so, shape future industry standards.

Editor’s Note

Start your next adventure by taking the “Find Your Element” quiz on page 14. Then look for the element icons throughout this issue to discover vacation experiences to complement your travel tastes. BEACH TIME IN O’SIDE

Oceanside — or O’side as it’s known to locals — is a beach town in beautiful Southern California where the sunny skies and wide sandy beaches invite you to relax your days away. Ideally located one block from the beach and the scenic Oceanside Pier, Wyndham Oceanside Pier Resort makes it easy to succumb to the call of the water.

Start off your mornings with a cup of coffee from Pier View Coffee Co. Sip your brew as you walk along the main drag and take in the many eateries plus two museums: California Surf Museum and Oceanside Museum of Art.

On your way back, stop by Pier View Market & Spirits to stock up on snacks along with some bait and tackle if you plan to join the locals fishing off of the pier.

Grab your beach (and fishing) gear and walk to the ocean, which is a great SoCal surfing area. Here, you can surf, windsurf and kitesurf to your heart’s content — there are lots of places that will teach you and rent you the gear. Plus, splash around in the waves, work on your tan, and stroll the coastline and pier.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT:

- Swimming pool & hot tub
- Arcade & game room
- On-site food

Travel Tip: Thursdays are market days in O’side! From 9 a.m.-1 p.m., visit the farmers market where you can find fresh local produce and gourmet goodies. Later that same day from 5-9 p.m., stop by the sunset market for a more lively experience filled with food, artists and live music.

TIMESHARE FRAUD ALERT

Since we launched our Scambusters efforts years ago, we continue to see a growing need to empower and provide important information to protect you from third-party exit and resale companies that operate under false pretenses. Our goal is to continue to be vigilant about protecting you from those who don’t have your best interests in mind.

You’ve probably seen or heard timeshare exit companies promote their services on TV, radio or online. Some appear to be reputable, with so-called testimonies from “satisfied” customers to even using celebrity spokespersons to back them — but take note — many are not what they claim to be and could cause you years of undue financial burden!

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS OR WOULD LIKE TO LEARN MORE, contact us at 844-234-0519 or scambusters@wyn.com.

HERE ARE A FEW THINGS TO LOOK OUT FOR if you’re ever contacted by a third-party company:

- CALL SCAMBUSTERS at 844-234-0519.

  Confirm that you’re speaking with a Wyndham representative before sharing any information about your timeshare.

- Watch out for companies offering to eliminate your maintenance fees.

- Beware of any resale company asking for money before they sell, cancel or help you exit your timeshare.

“We were staying at Wyndham Ocean Walk in Daytona Beach with the grandkids and decided to take a drive to Ponce Inlet. When we arrived, we found out that there was a launch at Cape Canaveral, so we climbed to the top of the lighthouse and got there just in time to see the launch. It was absolutely awesome! The best part is that about 60 seconds after we saw it, we actually heard a thunderous sound and felt the entire lighthouse tremble!”

Congratulations to Linda Laboy of Tampa, Florida!

Vacationing is not necessarily what you see when you look out the window, but how you feel when you arrive at your destination. Stuck on where to go next? We’ve covered the locations inspired by your vacation element.

BY MELODY BEUZELIN
HEAD FOR THE HILLS

If you identify with the earth element, chances are you’re resilient, centered, intuitive and always seeking balance. The curiosity to explore comes from the heart.

WHEN YOU VISIT STEAMBOAT SPRINGS YOU’LL ALMOST CERTAINLY SPEND MORE TIME OUTDOORS THAN INDOORS.

Wyndham Vacation Resorts Steamboat Springs is located in Ski Town U.S.A.®, famous for its signature champagne powder. It’s also a fast-growing biking community, with hundreds of miles of single-track and multiuse trails. Take in the panorama of Wyndham Pagosa, located on the Colorado Sunbelt in Pagosa Springs. You’ll be surrounded by the Rocky Mountains and San Juan National Forest, which have every outdoor activity you could dream of, like horseback riding, golfing and soaking in minerals from the Great Pagosa Hot Springs.
Places where you feel most at home typically feature rolling hills of endless green, dense forests or a quiet space tucked away in blankets of snow — somewhere you can unwind and clear your mind.

Taking a step back to appreciate nature is one of life's simplest pleasures.

National parks offer true access to the great outdoors, untouched by high-rises and asphalt. Yellowstone National Park is one of the United States’ top 10 natural wonders, and WorldMark West Yellowstone puts you right in its backyard. The park is home to more than 390 waterfalls, 1,000 miles of trails and 300 geysers, including the world-famous Old Faithful.

Your resort is nestled in the heart of Park City, framed by the Wasatch Mountains. There are more than 400 trails to walk, ski or ride along, so you’ll never see the same sight twice. While Park City is relatively small in size, it doesn’t have a small-town appetite. In fact, it’s considered a major foodie destination!

If you’re looking for a quiet respite, look no further than Wyndham Park City.

Visit the “Caribbean of the Rockies” at WorldMark Bear Lake in Garden City. Its affectionate nickname comes from the striking sapphire-blue water formed by limestone deposits in Bear Lake, just steps from your resort. If you’ve never been spelunking, start at Minnentonka Cave. This natural wonder will take you deep underground and is studded with natural formations.
If the element of fire is more your scene, you’re most likely spirited, passionate and in search of adventure. You find exciting experiences around every corner.

YOU’RE A CLASSIC RISK-TAKER, AND THERE’S NO BETTER PLACE TO TRY YOUR LUCK THAN LAS VEGAS.

CLUB Wyndham® has multiple locations that are a dice’s throw from the action, such as Wyndham Tropicana at Las Vegas and Wyndham Desert Blue. Spend your days watching the gondolas at The Venetian and fountain shows at the Bellagio, then fill your nights with casino-hopping and shows like Cirque du Soleil’s O.

IF ADVENTURE IS THE SPICE OF LIFE, THEN THE SOUTHWEST OFFERS A VARIETY OF FLAVORS, WITH TAOS AS THE MECCA OF SIGHTS AND CULTURE.

Artists, performers and craftsmen are the pulse of the town, and you can experience it firsthand when you stay at Wyndham Taos. Just next door, you’ll find the Taos Art Museum filled with pieces that reflect the area’s unique atmosphere. Take a walk and you’ll discover many more, in addition to art galleries and specialty shops.
You live in the moment, whether it’s at the high-roller’s table or on a spur-of-the-moment hike up a volcano.

The restless wanderer inside you craves more, and Wyndham at Waikiki Beach Walk® in Honolulu puts you in the middle of all the action. You’ll arrive on Main Street, steps in either direction leading you to sumptuous restaurants, upscale shopping and lively bars. Honolulu’s nightlife is vibrant, and with many hotspots on the shoreline, you’ll enjoy views of Waikiki Beach as you dance under the stars.

With a nature as bold and energetic as yours, there’s no doubt you’ll want to take your adventure past the crowds. Find yourself at Wyndham Kona Hawaiian Resort, in Kailua-Kona. Of Hawaii’s archipelagos, Kona is known as the Big Island and is home to the six volcanoes that created it! Consider hiking, driving or taking a helicopter tour to Mauna Loa. It’s the largest volcano in the world — and it’s still active, with more than 150 eruptions over the last 1,000 years.

YOU MIGHT SEE HAWAII’S PRISTINE BEACHES, MARVEL AT THEIR BREATHTAKING BEAUTY, BUT THEN ASK, “WHAT’S NEXT?”

YOU’LL WELCOME THE 300 DAYS OF SUNSHINE IN ARIZONA WHEN YOU STAY AT WYNDHAM RANCHO VISTOSO.

Make your way to the Linda Vista Loop, where hiking can be enjoyed year-round. You’ll feel on top of the world once you make your way through the Upper Linda Vista trail. The panoramic views — and the photographs that are sure to follow — will be well worth it.
THERE’S NO ESCAPE QUITE LIKE THE ONE YOU’D FIND ON TOP OF A MOUNTAIN. IT’S PEACEFUL, CLEAN AND UNDISTURBED.

The Great Smoky Mountains decorating the border of Tennessee and North Carolina have a magical quality all thanks to their blue-tinted fog that the region is named after. The fog isn’t made up of pollution or clouds — actually, plants in the area release organic compounds that gather and scatter blue light from the sky.

See for yourself when you stay at Wyndham Resort at Fairfield Sapphire Valley in Sapphire, North Carolina, or Wyndham Smoky Mountains in Sevierville, Tennessee. Great Smoky Mountains National Park is an endless basin of natural wonders. Temperatures have never exceeded 80 degrees, so you can enjoy 800 square miles of trails and sightseeing.

JUST FLOW WITH IT

With air as your element, you’re a clear and forward thinker who prefers a packed itinerary. You enjoy pursuits found off the beaten path, and see travel as an invaluable form of education.

TAKING SOME TIME AND GETTING SPACE FOR YOURSELF ISN’T JUST IMPORTANT FOR YOU, BUT FOR THE LITTLE ONES AS WELL.

Wyndham Vacation Resorts Smugglers’ Notch Vermont® is the perfect place for families, with award-winning children’s programs and special interest camps. The resort is a village of adventure, with activities like rock climbing, kayaking, snowmobile tours and even zip lining adventures.
Whether you’re on the highest floor of a skyscraper overlooking the metropolis or taking in the crisp, clean air of the mountains, you’re always up for a little perspective.

WASHINGTON’S ECLECTIC CHARM WILL SEND YOU SPIRALING IN EVERY DIRECTION.

Stay at WorldMark Seattle - The Camlin, built in the 1926 prohibition era for a historical experience. Then, wander the city and take in the views at the Space Needle or find a seasonal confection at Pike Place Market.

Some might head to WorldMark Long Beach for the sun and sand. However, your thirst for knowledge might lead you in an unexpected — but just as fun — direction like the World Kite Museum. You’ll discover more than 1,500 different kites, including some that were used for military training in World War III!

Be sure to head to Marsh’s Free Museum for oddities and unusual finds, like an eight-legged lamb or an authentic shrunken head from South America.
If water is your element, you’re known for your kind smile and generous laughter. While you’re pretty laid-back, you have a powerful inner strength that can’t be matched.

The key to finding the best destination for you is by picking a coast. Wyndham Clearwater Beach Resort in Clearwater sits along the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico. TripAdvisor named Clearwater the No. 1 beach in the U.S. in 2018 — once you step foot into the powder-soft sand and dip your toes into its emerald waters, you’ll know why.

If you’re looking to upgrade your beach access to something a little more lively, make your way south to Pompano Beach, where you’ll find Wyndham Sea Gardens. When you’ve finished sunbathing, there’s plenty of excitement to keep you busy, such as casino gaming at Isle Casino Racing Pompano Park, live performances at the Pompano Beach Amphitheater, or the nightlife in Fort Lauderdale just 10 miles away.
Sunset strolls along the shoreline are right up your alley, but as long as there’s a big body of saltwater nearby, you’d call anywhere home.

When you think of California, sky-scraping palm trees, sublime sunsets and a laid-back attitude all come to mind. The reality of it couldn’t be closer to the truth.

While the waters of the Pacific might be a little cooler than the East Coast’s, there’s plenty to do without ever having to get your feet wet. Wyndham Harbour Lights in the historic Gaslamp District of sunny San Diego has a historic charm you’ll love. Just 13 miles away is La Jolla, a beach town with a boardwalk that winds around cliffs and coves peppered with seals that sunbathe just an arm’s length away.

For a quieter beach that can be enjoyed with your family, plan your stay at WorldMark Marina Dunes in the city of Marina. If you’re lucky, you might spot a whale! While you’re there, visit one of the area’s vineyards for a wine tasting.

For a quieter beach that can be enjoyed with your family, plan your stay at WorldMark Marina Dunes in the city of Marina. If you’re lucky, you might spot a whale! While you’re there, visit one of the area’s vineyards for a wine tasting.

When you think of California, sky-scraping palm trees, sublime sunsets and a laid-back attitude all come to mind. The reality of it couldn’t be closer to the truth.

While the waters of the Pacific might be a little cooler than the East Coast’s, there’s plenty to do without ever having to get your feet wet. Wyndham Harbour Lights in the historic Gaslamp District of sunny San Diego has a historic charm you’ll love. Just 13 miles away is La Jolla, a beach town with a boardwalk that winds around cliffs and coves peppered with seals that sunbathe just an arm’s length away.
